Mr. Warren Olney, III
Assistant Attorney General
Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Olney:

25X1A

I refer to your letter of 24 February 1954 addressed to [redacted] of this Agency and to our subsequent discussion with you and Mr. Walter J. Yeagley on 12 March 1954 on the subject of [redacted]. You will recall that that correspondence and discussion concerned allegations made against [redacted] and others in connection with activities which [redacted] was conducting [redacted] for this Agency.

I had planned to respond to your letter to [redacted] in accordance with the tenor of our discussion on 12 March, but subsequent to that time additional information has been received on [redacted] which has given rise to a new set of circumstances. This information has to do with activities subsequent to his connection with this Agency, but which may have implications with regard to his prior association with us. This, therefore, is an interim response to inform you that we have the case under active consideration and will be in touch with you in the near future.
